

the promise is made up of five foundations
including

care

Sometimes, it's not possible for children to live with their family.

But they must still be able to live with their brothers and sisters, as long as it's safe.

And they must belong to a loving home, staying there for as long as they need to.

Find out more at thepromise.scot

