Thank you for joining us on this journey. We hope it has been a positive and useful experience.

Please help us to further develop and improve by contributing to this feedback postcard aimed at letting future cohorts understand your experience.

One word to sum up my experience today

Inspirational

informative

Encouraging

Inspiring

What I was hoping to gain from today

Insight into how the EDAN hub made it happen useful info to share with families, colleagues and other professionals

Tips for my own project

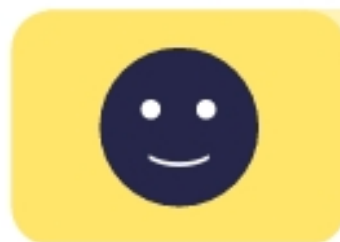

I was keen to learn how the agencies collaborated and committed to the project learning around how others have developed early help models

Learning about the EDAN hub

Opportunity to learn more about EDAN Hub and networking Insights into multi-agency working

How well it met my expectations and needs

Very Well

partly met

Good

What I think will be the most useful takeaways that this is not diagnosis dep, and has a wide range of services families can access

That no diagnosis is needed

The importance of a shared language

The Capable Environments model understand the offer

Sharing the message that support is available regardless of diagnosis

All stakeholders staying family-centred = success

What I have learnt which will help me make changes at work

Frequency of evaluation to ensure the service offer remains relevant that there are lots of support out there, and that we can link in with EDAN hub

That it is possible to get differing agencies to agree to a single purpose.

Advice I would give for future cohorts (either for the participants or facilitators)

What else I want you to know more info about each individual part of the hub,

How the process & roles are being documented.
