Valuable

Uplifting

Educational is my one word to sum today
up

Interesting

Brave

Interesting

What I was hoping to gain from today

Different perspective to gain a broader sense of how to support the Promise

More people around and their role in the Promise

Better awareness of how others have overcome challenges in supporting the workforce

Some understanding about how other organisations are embedding the Promise into practice and what I can do

Ideas and inspiration

Sharing ideas

To find out what I can be doing to ensure I keep
the Promise

To learn about other organisations and the work they are doing. To speak to like minded individuals and share ideas, struggles and network

More ideas

Insight and contacts are what I was hoping to gain
from today

Deeper conversations about the challenges
impacting TCAC

Increasing
knowledge
about the Promise

I valued the networking
opportunity at the Aberdeen event and again this has been very valuable

To have a better understanding of how we can all keep the Promise

Ideas for new projects

I was hoping to network to build resources that we could access for my service/ team to meet the Promise

Explore how other organisations were overcoming some of the hurdles associated with the Promise

How well it met my expectations and needs

Outweighed my expectations
and needs. New learning

10/10 fully met my expectations

Very well. Good refresher about what the Promise is aiming to do. Feel more empowered to use Promise language in my practice

I thought today would be more child focussed

It met my
and above

Didn't really have expectations but I feel I have used my time well

Expectations
were met

Great
discussions and nice to meet people

10/10

Today exceeded my expectations. There was a range and variety of speakers which sparked different
conversations

I felt it has been really impactful to help me understand how other organisations and sectors support the Promise

Expectation - to learn more about The Promise across Scotland - All speakers were excellent and informative.
Love the 'Promise Keepers'

100%

Great

8/10 feel like I learned a lot

I found it very informative

What I think will be the most useful takeaway

Take risks to make change.
Even small change makes huge impact

Interested in Promise Keepers! Growing
our own and found the EDAN concept
amazing

Every
organisation should have a Promise Keeper

Importance
about thinking
purpose of supervision

To promote the need for
ambassador

More joined up thinking

Listening to the Promise Keepers and STAF will be the biggest takeaways

New Contacts

Working collaboratively is key

Long term
outcomes -
Advocacy
for change

Contacts I have made

To find more people in my local area who I can work with and better support young people

For me the Grow your own social worker was the most useful takeaway

Helpful to hear about innovative solutions like Stirling Council

Moving on from safe spaces to brave spaces

email addresses for Renfrewshire - maybe an email list of participants would be good. Promise conversation with my LA I have not met who has voice of YP

That
everyone is on the same page

Be Brave

Innovation
happening and creates change

Different ways to show staff are valued

Takeaways -
being mindful of language used

What I have learnt which will help me make changes at work

Expand on grow our own

Think I will try and introduce mentoring

The successes of the Promise Keeper
Network could be replicated in Stirling

How do we value
more?

Developing shared language to promote the importance of the Promise

I have learned about resources available to help support us to keep the Promise. I have gained ideas on how to recruit and retain passionate people who care

Good to connect with like minded individuals and share in a days learning

Bravery

Power of networking
across the system

Talk about our ambitions

Already using Staf reflective 4x4x4
model

Advice I would give for future cohorts (either for the participants or facilitators)

Not everyone is doing the same thing the same way

Speak to people and ask curious questions

Offer to present and
be brave!

End with a Promise
Pledge

Mix up tables throughout event to create opportunities for people and have different discussions

To come with an open mind and enjoy learning new things - even when they don't specifically relate to your field of work

For future cohorts - I would suggest making contacts to drill down on best practice

Great to be given the time and space to talk about this

Missed opportunity to hear from hosting local authority - missing the opportunity for lived experience input

Vote for the speakers before the event

Share, listen and soak it all
up!

updates

Be brave

What else I want you to know

Thank you. I felt very cared for and looked after today after a traumatic start to the day!

More educators need to hear these perspectives!

I would like to know the bigger transformational changes everyone
identifies will happen

How do we get more people
around the table?

Its been lovely to have the space to think without distractions

What peoples/authorities/organisations Promise plans look like

Informative. Hoping to gain more knowledge (which I have) - new to the Promise will now use

Food for thought! Loved hearing from different perspectives and viewpoints. I will definitely look into Promise Keepers in my areas. Everything was perfect - thank you!

The event was great for networking. I found on eventbrite. It would be great if this was wider advertised to ensure there are a range of agencies involved - thank you!

I would have liked practice examples from Promise
Keepers and EDAN
hubs

More
opportunities to think about how we support the workforce
