

Plan 24-30 has Route Maps to keep the promise across five foundations, including:

people

The children Scotland cares for must be supported to develop relationships: with people in the workforce, and those in the wider community.

And these people must also be supported: to listen, and to be compassionate in their care and decision-making.

Find out more at plan2430.scot

